KNOWLEDGE KEYS FROM DR. JACQUELINE DEL ROSARIO

ON THE EARLY YEARS OF MARRIAGE

"Most people think the newlywed years of marriage are like the Garden of Eden, when it can often be more like Desert Storm. My goal is to prevent them from pulling out their fatigues by presenting them with bestmarriagekeys.com"

ON THE IMPORTANCE OF UNDERSTANDING YOUR SPOUSE:

All married couples should understand the term Emotional intelligence. You have to read where your mate is and anticipate their next move. Sometimes we look at things from only one perspective, how we see it, but there is something to putting ourselves in the shoes of our mate to figure out when they are saying x,y, and z what are they really saying and where are they emotionally?"

ON PREVENTING INFIDELITY

"Emotional cheating is sharing and divulging intimate details of our lives with someone other than our spouse. Emotional cheating is the gateway to infidelity, once you begin to share how you feel, your dreams and inspirations with another person; it is only a matter of time before that ends in the bed. You are creating a soul tie where you are bound to that person on an emotional level, and that emotional bond can easily lead to physical connection. You have to be careful about sharing your dreams, feelings, and inspirations on an emotional level with anyone other than your mate. My advice, is simply don't do it!"

DR. DEL ROSARIO ON RELATIONSHIPS:

"Most relationships go wrong for reasons we don't correctly identify. We need to focus and understand self-worth, fear factors, gender differences, compatibility and communication to build a healthy relationship."

DR. DEL ROSARIO'S ADVICE TO SINGLE WOMEN

"Mr. Wrong can come packaged in the right suit, have the right job, and have the right look. I try to help women separate fact from fiction and teach them to examine their own emotional fitness for relationships so they look beyond the façade and can identify Mr. Right from the outset."

DR. DEL ROSARIO'S ADVICE TO SINGLE MEN

"Most men feel that understanding women is likened to an enigma within an enigma they are unable to ascertain her ways. Instead of grasping at straws we give them concrete ways to decode the female psyche."

DR. DEL ROSARIO'S ADVICE TO THE FAITH-BASED COMMUNITY

"I believe God has a vision for successful marriages, but we have to follow the prescriptions. Where are we falling and where do we go from here? The rate of divorce in the church is the same as the world's. That is because we are getting lost in culture instead of applying and living the Word."
